MORE FIGHTING.

Americans Lose 45 Killed and 15 Wounded in Two Days.

The Natives Routed With heavy Slaughter, But Escaped to the Jungles.

Manila, March, 26, 7:33 p. m.—The United States troops under Brig. Gen. Lloyd Wheaton, captured the town of Malinta, beyond the Tullahan river, to-day, after a sharp fight. Col. Harry C. Egbert of the Twenty-second regular Infantry was killed. Prince Loewenstein formerly aide de camp on the staff of Brig. Gen. Miller at Iloilo, somehow got in front of the firing line and was shot in the side, dying almost instantly.

A German who accompanied him was wounded. The American casualties to-day were much lighter than those of yesterday, the total losses thus far reported since the engagement commenced being 45 killed and 145 wounded.

Gen. Wheaton entered Malinta, which is a small village of huts, at 1 o'clock this afternoon. The United States gunboats have been shelling Malabon, about a mile north-west of Calocan, for several hours. A Fierce Resistance.

The insurgents made a fierce resistance to the American advance up to the road of Malinta. In addition to the fatal wounding of Col. Egbert, several men of the twenty-second infantry and several of the Oregon and Kansas regiments were killed.

Evidently anticipating a bombardment by the fleet 1,000 rebels vacated Malabon last night, leaving a few to burn the town.

The Enemy Escapes.

The trap failed to hold, and the rebels succeeded in escaping from Malabon yesterday, after burning the town. The difficult character of the country retarded the American advance, and resistance was offered at every available point by the Filipinos. The village of Malinta, on the way to Polo, was taken after a sharp fight, in which Col. Henry E. Egbert was killed at the head of his regiment, the Twenty-second. The American troops suffered severely from the heat, many of them being prostrated. McArthur's division was compelled to drive the insurgents successively from lines of intrenchments in his advance toward Polo, and before he reached that point the rebels had fled northward from Malabon.

STATE RECOVERS.

Judgment For $40,000, But $30,000 Barred by Limitation.

Republicans Trying to Make Political Capital Out of a Decision in a Noted Case.

Frankfort, Ky., March 25.—The court of appeals in an opinion by Judge White, in which the entire court concurred, decided the famous case of the commonwealth against former Auditor Norman and Auditor's Agent Max Barker, of Louisville, holding that there was no conspiracy between the two men to defraud the state of any money, thus exonerating Norman, but holding that Barker must pay back into the treasury nearly $10,000 that he collected illegally as commissions. More money would have been recovered but for the statute of limitation upon it.

The decision is an affirmation of the lower court as to Norman, but a reversal as to Barker, it having held both excusable.

Judge White's Opinion.

In passing, on the case Judge White said:

"We are of the opinion that under the law providing for the appointment of Auditor's agents the appellee, Barker, was not entitled to the commission of 20 per cent. on license taxes received and collected by the County Clerk and paid by that officer into the State Treasury and that all sums paid to him on that account were illegally paid. The fact that the Attorney General advised the auditor to pay those sums as legal charges, and that they were so illegally paid for a number of years, cannot be pleaded by appellee Barker as a defense to their recovery. The Attorney General was the adviser of the Auditor in the matter and not of Barker. As to the defense of contemporaneous and practical construction and good faith, and the opinion of the Attorney General, as presented by appellee Norman, we deem it unnecessary to determine, as according to our view of the case that is not before us.

"In our opinion the gist of the action is the retention and refusal to pay back money illegally drawn from the Treasury. The charge of conspiracy, if it had been maintained by the proof, would but hold Norman jointly liable with Barker for the repayment of the money and this, too, regardless of any defense by Norman other than it was legally due to Barker. If the charge of conspiracy fails there is no joint liability.

"The proof shows that a great part of the sums paid appellee Barker were for commissions on licenses that were paid to the county clerk for a year, and dated back sometimes as much as ninety days, so as to cover the entire time the person had been engaged in business. In all these cases it appears that the appellee Barker was paid his commission for the whole license fee for a full year collected. This was done though the delinquency was less than thirty days. The law provides that all license taxes and fees be paid for in advance, and the appellee Barker in defiance of that law and the further law that a penalty was attached for engaging in any of the prohibited businesses without a license, advised and procured the County Clerk to issue licenses and past date them, instead of proceeding by prosecution for the penalty. The effect of the past dating the licenses, as construed, or at least acted upon by appellee Barker, was that he received 20 per cent. of the whole year's license fees. If the person was delinquent for less than seventy days, the State, by past dating and paying the commission to Barker, actually lost money, and as an economic measure it would have been better to have pardoned past offenses and dated the licenses from the day of payment.

COMET WILL HIT US.

Startling Prediction of a German Astronomer.

Remarkable Manner in Which He Has Foretold Events, Makes His Prediction Credible.

January and February—Unprecedented cold waves, cyclones and hurricanes at sea, with great loss to shipping, particularly on the American continent.

Toward end of March—Earthquakes and destroying hail storms. July-August—Tidal wave, destroying eastern coast of America, Florida and California becoming islands from a submarine earthquake.

November 13—Our planet to come in contact with the comet known to astronomers as the comet of 1866—our planet to be, if not absolutely, partially destroyed.

This is the cheerful prediction Prof. Randolph Falb, of Vienna, a noted scientist and world-renowned authority on earthquakes and meteorological conditions, in March 1894, forwarded to the Imperial Academy of Science at Vienna. Probably nothing more would have been heard of the prediction if the meteorological conditions of the latter part of January and early part of February, of this year, had not corresponded with Prof. Falb's prediction, and the scientific journals of Europe are, in consequence, giving Prof. Falb and his predictions a great deal of attention.

While Prof. Falb is by many scientists, considered a "crank," his predictions on seismic disturbances have been remarkably fulfilled. As, for instance the great earthquake at Zante in 1893. He, several days before the earthquake occurred, sent warning to press all over Europe. Again, in March, 1893, he was invited to lecture to the Tourist Club, of Vienna, on the subject of earthquakes, but, while accepting the invitation, postponed the lecture until after April 13, as an earthquake would take place about that time and he would prefer to include the results of his investigation of this earthquake in his lecture. And, as the German proverb has it, "Has du mir gesehen," the earthquake did occur on April 8 and was felt all over Southern Hungary and did much damage.

Many incidents like these could be quoted, where predictions have been made one to two years in advance and have been fulfilled. Professor Falb disclaims in the most pre-emptory manner that his warnings should be classed as predictions or prophecies.

"I am not a prophet," he said in an interview. "My theories are simply scientific investigations into the mundane anatomy. The interior of the earth is filled with a matter mass, subject to ebb and flow just like the waters of the ocean. Every intelligent and educated man knows this. Between the surface of the earth and this molten mass, which is slowly cooling, there is a shell of an average of eighteen miles in thickness, in some places thinner than in others, and here the confined force escapes in the form of gas. But not finding such an outlet through the influence of the moon, a great tidal wave sweeps round the inner crust of the earth and produces the terrible phenomena known as earthquakes.

This is, in short, Professor Falb's theory and it has been much discussed, particularly his references to the influence of the moon. Professor Falb calls attention to the "fully established" instances where a comet has come in contact with our planet and the results.

616. January 14, ten people killed in China by the fall of a meteor.

823. November 3, thirty five villages destroyed in Saxony.

1511. September 4, many lives destroyed by falling meteors at Crema.

1749. November 4, a ship crossing the Atlantic was struck, killing several sailors.

Each of these instances, says the Professor Falb, can be regarded as the fall of a small comet upon our planet.

YANKEES IN THE SOUTH.

One Hundred Thousand Fruit Trees in One Orchard.

There is in the State of North Carolina an interesting settlement that has grown up almost without notice. Amid the long leaf pines, not far from the capital of the Old North State is a territory of about six hundred square miles of what is known as the high sand hills. The hills are as high as the hilly lands of the North, but they are made up of pure white sand and on them grow sparingly and far between the tall long leaved pines that tower to a height of sixty to a hundred feet. It was thought until the past few years that these lands were worthless.

The remarks used to be "they were made just to hold the world together, a crow will take his rations with him in flying over the sand hills, it will sprout corn peas only, and when sprouting you can hear them for miles grunting, it is so hard for them to sprout," and like expressions. But there has come a wonderful change on that section, and the change has been brought about by the hand of the Northern man and his money. The section has been for many years recognized by physicians to be the best winter resort in America and they began to send their patients down there, and many who were suffering from chronic diseases became well and commenced experimenting with the soil, some of them put out fruit trees, some vines, some vegetables and it soon became evident that on account of the warm genial climate that was planted and fertilized began to thrive and as the fruit came into bearing it showed a quality that was exceedingly fine. And from year to year the people have gone in and bought land until there are thousands of acres in fruit, and during the season from May until middle of August hundreds of thousands of tons of fruit is shipped North. One orchard alone contains over one hundred thousand fruit bearing trees, vines and shrubs. All this work has been done by the Northern people who were attracted to this section on account of their health, and if one will stand at the ticket window of the Merchants & Miners Steamship Company in Boston any day from November until April they will see people from every New England State buying tickets to what is known as the Yankee Settlement, Southern Pines.

"Press" Lowell, Mass.
A circular has been sent out to Boards of Trade in the South inviting delegates to a convention there April 18, which reads as follows: Southern Pines, N. C. March 19, '99. Board of Commissioners. Gentlemen—

We call your attention to the enclosed circular letter that has been sent to a large number of prominent Southern people, inviting them to be present at Southern Pines, N. C. on the 18th of April, and to work for their respective sections. We beg to suggest that it will be to the advantage of your place, if you will select a committee composed of the Mayor of your place and the editors of newspapers located in your territory, to attend the meeting, and you ought to make an appropriation to pay at least the expenses of these gentlemen. We are sure they will be willing to give their time, if you will pay traveling expenses and hotel charges. We want to tell you that the Northern people who have come into this place during the past few years are now paying one sixth of the taxes of this entire county, both school, county and state, and it will pay you to send a delegation to Southern Pines, that they may induce Northern people to go to your place and aid your people in paying taxes and in developing manufacturing enterprises. Our people from the North will gladly come down out of that bleak, cold climate to the sunny land of Dixie, if you will only let them know you want them, as the Native people of this section did, advertise the fact that they wanted us. You cannot expect people to settle in your place, for they know comparatively nothing about it. All they do know is that it is down in the postoffice directory, as having a postoffice. They see no other advertisement of it. This place is filling up to over-flowing, and we haven't room for all who want to come, and we will be glad to help you to a share. You Southern people do not realize the fact that you do not advertise what you have.

You need to advertise your advantages through your home papers, and send your home papers broadcast over the Northern States. We hope you appreciate what we Northern people located at Southern Pines, (the Yankee City in the South), are doing to bring Northerners to every part of Dixie. You can't spend a couple of hundred dollars to better advantage, than by furnishing it to your chairman and editors, and send them to talk your advantages to the large number of Northerners, who will be at Southern Pines to learn of the advantages of the different sections of the South. Yours truly,

A. M. CLARK,
President, Board of Trade.
P. H. BECK,
Mayor, Southern Pines, N. C.

GUS COULTER.

Gus Coulter has two opponents in his race for Auditor. Both of them live in the eastern part of the state. Mr. Coulter should receive the solid support of West Kentucky. He has been a hard worker in the party and never asked for anything before. Calloway will stand by the great county of Graves because that county has never failed to give her cheerful support to Calloway's candidates. To throw down that county would be bad politics and it would not be soon forgotten. Graves county Democracy never forgets a favor and Gus Coulter is the acknowledged leader in that county, and is closer to the hearts of that people to-day than he ever was, for they recognize in him superiority of leadership and honesty of purpose. Gus Coulter on the state ticket will be a Corinthian column of strength. He is not an orator but his valuable council will be as a guide and a compass which has never failed to point toward success, and his sleepless energy and eternal hustle will do much toward achieving a splendid Democratic victory in November.—Murray Ledger.

That "Wise Old City."

Montgomery, Ala., was delighted with the performance of the Schubert Symphony Club and Lady Quartette on February 16th, '97, and from the collection of testimonials from the most excellent of people we clip the following from that sterling gentleman and scholar, Rev. Dr. W. Dudley Powers, Rector of St. John's Chapel: "Your entertainment was very satisfactory to all who saw it, and has received warm compliments from all to whom I have spoken. I regard it as a refined, artistic and pleasant entertainment. To me your company gave exceptional pleasure, and I shall always be glad to give any words of commendation that may be of service to you." The best people are always the best pleased with Schubert's. Your last chance to hear them here is at the Opera House on March 27.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Railroad Commissioner,
J. FLETCHER DEMPSEY, of Hopkins County.

There was another two-cent jump upward in May wheat Saturday.

The stove trust has decided upon another advance of ten per cent. in prices.

J. Embury Allen, late Major of the Second Kentucky Volunteers, defeated Capt. Wm. H. May for the Democratic nomination for State Senator from Fayette county.

Sam Crewdson has decided not to be a candidate for the State Senate in the Logan district and Dr. S. B. Harrel has announced himself a candidate.

Gus Coulter, the Western Kentucky candidate for Auditor, will shortly take the stump, and make speeches at a number of the county seats.

Last week was a very quiet one in State politics. Goebl spoke at Elizabethtown Saturday and Stone spoke at Georgetown the same day and these were the only speeches of the week. It does not appear to be a speaking campaign that will be brought to a close in 81 more days.

Capt. Stone is developing surprising strength in unexpected quarters. The papers of Montgomery, Lincoln and Harrison counties say he has a good chance to carry those counties and the daily papers say he was given an attentive hearing at Georgetown Saturday by a very large crowd and made a fine impression.

The Fulton Guard is making a fight against Capt. Stone in its editorial efforts, attacking his record in Congress and claiming Fulton county for Hardin. The Fulton leader, on the other hand has assumed the leadership of Stone's campaign in the First district, so far as the press is concerned, and the hot fight is already on in that county.

The Ohio Valley Bimetallic League of Clubs, will hold a convention in Louisville May 31 and June 1 and the Bryan club of Hopkinsville should hold a meeting and appoint delegates to attend. The States of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Kentucky are included in the organization. Judge Jas. P. Tarver, of Covington, is President. Col. Bryan and other national leaders will be present.

An exciting race for the Democratic nomination for Railroad Commissioner in the Second or Louisville district will come to an end April 6, when the nominating convention will be held. Alexander and McChord are the leading candidates, with one or two other candidates who are cutting but little figure in the race. The race is doubtful, with the Democratic organization in Louisville backing Alexander. McChord is the author of the Senate bill that bore his name and the railroads are said to be taking a hand against him.

The decision of the Court of Appeals in the Barker case is another legal victory for Gov. Brown, who stands without an equal in Kentucky as a lawyer. The Republicans will of course attempt to make capital of this decision, but they can claim no credit for the recovery of the money illegally paid out. Democratic attorneys fought the case to a finish and a Democratic court vindicates the law. If the Republican Attorney General wants campaign material to help him in his race for Governor, let him investigate the penitentiaries of two years ago and clean out the Augean stables of the Bradley administration.

The opposition of the Paducah Register to Capt. Stone does not stop at his candidacy for Governor. It is opposed to him all along the line and fires a two-column broadside at him for being "mentioned" as President of the Southern Baptist Convention to meet in Louisville next May. If the Register with its gold standard ideas succeeds in running a free silver state convention, it will have its hands full. It should leave the other convention matters to "us Baptists." The KENTUCKIAN is "one of 'em," and it is for Capt. Stone for President, tooth and toe-nail, no matter what its attitude may be in regard to his candidacy for Governor.

Gov. Roosevelt testified before the Army Court of Inquiry at New York yesterday regarding the beef furnished his soldiers. He said some of it was stringy, unattractive and covered with slime. The canned roast beef, he said, was utterly and hopelessly unacceptable. Two other officers testified along the same line.

The only trouble about the election law is that it does not go half far enough. A still further reform is needed in the direction of the ballot itself.

A Louisville firm has been given a contract for making 1,200,000 barrels for the whiskey trust at $2 apiece.

Another charred skeleton was taken from the Windsor Hotel ruins Saturday, making 24 victims discovered, with many more missing.

The cause of honest elections in Kentucky is greater than any man.

HELEN GOULD.

Invited to Oliver Belmont's Dollar Dinner.

Movement Has Grown Into a Great Non-Partisan Affair—Many Speakers.

New York, March 27.—Many shades of modern thought will be represented at the "dollar dinner" in honor of Thomas Jefferson, to be held at the Grand Central Palace in this city on April 19.

Among those who have been invited and who are expected to be present are Bishop Henry C. Potter, Rev. Dr. Felix Adler, R. Fulton Cutting, Dr. Edward McMillen, Samuel Compers and John N. Parsons.

Two women only will be invited. That was decided upon at a meeting of the dinner committee yesterday. One of these is Miss Helen Miller Gould. The name of the second woman to be invited has been agreed upon, but will not be announced at present.

The dinner is developing into a non-partisan movement, and the full list of the invited guests will be interesting.

Oliver H. P. Belmont will be a guest of honor and may be included among the speakers. Mr. Belmont and his brother, Percy Belmont, are sworn enemies politically and their personal relations are not the best.

ACUTE ATTACK

Of Pneumonia Causes the Death of W. T. Hawks.

Mr. Wm. T. Hawks died at the home of Mr. W. W. Eddins, a few miles east of Fairview, Friday night. His death was rather sudden and was due to an acute attack of pneumonia. He had been sick with grip for several weeks, but was getting much better, when on Friday morning he was attacked with pneumonia, death resulting in a few hours. He had been making his home at Mr. Eddins' for about seven years.

He was a bachelor and was 70 years old. His friends were legion and if he had an enemy he never knew it.

He was a ventriloquist of some note and often amused his friends by exhibitions of the art.

Decensed was a member of the Presbyterian church and the funeral was preached by Rev. Bennett, of Fairview, Saturday.

CAUGHT IN A SHREDDER

And Young Farmer Came Near Losing a Hand.

Mr. T. Emmet Caudle, a well known Newstead farmer, came near losing one of his hands while operating a corn shredder Friday. He was feeding the machine when his hand caught in some way. The thumb nail was torn off and his hand was cut and mashed pretty badly before he could withdraw it from the rapidly revolving machinery. He wore a thick glove and this probably saved the member from being ground to a pulp. His injuries were immediately looked after by a surgeon and he was able to be in the city the next day, though it will be some time before he can use his hand.

"Out of Sight Out of Mind."

In other months we forget the harsh winds of Spring. But they have their use, as some say, to blow out the bad air accumulated after Winter storms and Spring thaws. There is far more important accumulation of badness in the veins and arteries of humanity, which needs Hood's Sarsaparilla.

This great Spring Medicine clarifies the blood as nothing else can. It cures scrofula, kidney disease, liver troubles, rheumatism and kindred ailments. Thus it gives perfect health, strength and appetite for months to come.

Kidneys.—My kidneys troubled me, and in advice took Hood's Sarsaparilla which gave prompt relief, better appetite, my sleep refreshing. It cured my wife also. Michael Boyle, 3473 Denby Street, Filadelfia, Pa.

Dyspepsia.—Complicated with liver and kidney trouble, I suffered for years with dyspepsia, with severe pain. Hood's Sarsaparilla made me strong and hearty. J. B. Emerson, Main Street, Auburn, Me.

Hip Disease.—Five months ago on my hip caused me to use crutches. Was confined to bed every winter. Hood's Sarsaparilla saved my life, as it cured me perfectly. Ann Strong and well. Anna Rosner, 49 Fourth St., Fall River, Mass.

Hood's Sarsaparilla never disappoints.

Hood's Pills cure liver, bile, constipation and all catarrhs to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

STATE RECOVERS.

A Constructive Fraud.

"This practice being, in our opinion, not authorized, but opposed to the very letter of the law, as well as its spirit and meaning, was at least a constructive fraud upon the State and can not be sanctioned. Appellee Barker may have been of opinion that by so doing he would be entitled to commissions, but he knew that the license fees were required to be paid in advance and that there was a penalty prescribed for engaging in business without the required license. That appellee Barker advised and counseled an open disregard of the law, by advising the County Clerk to pass date the licenses, and that by so doing he profited thereby, amounts to constructive fraud. These sums paid to Barker being illegal, and obtained under these practices, so far as are not barred by limitation of five years can be recovered back.

Norman Not a Party.

"It is earnestly insisted that as the petition alleges a conspiracy, and that as proof of that failed, and as a consequence appellee Norman was not liable, that the appellee Barker was also entitled to a peremptory instruction as given in the lower court. We do not so understand the law. No combination was necessary to make actionable the right to recover of Barker the illegal fees and commission paid him under the circumstances. The onus of effect of the allegation of conspiracy was to hold Appellee Norman jointly with Barker.

"We are of opinion that Appellee Barker was liable regardless of any allegation or proof of conspiracy and that if Norman was liable, a question on which we intimate no opinion, it would be on his bond as Auditor. The only way to make him liable jointly with Barker was by proof of conspiracy, which clearly failed.

"For the reason indicated the judgment of the lower court is affirmed as to Norman, but as to Barker is reversed and cause remanded for a new trial."

Present Attorney General Taylor was not an active attorney in prosecuting the case, but the republican leaders are jubilant over the decision, and say that they will get as much campaign material out of it as they had out of the Tate case in 1895, when Governor Bradley defeated General Hardin for Governor.

MAD DOG SCARE.

Rabid Canine Killed By Tom Anderson—Crushed.

Church Hill, Ky., March 27.—We were glad to have the grand and glorious privilege of reading another of "Yazoo's" bright letters last week. But who would have thought our public roads were such "rich soil". I guess it would be better to sell our valuable, but surplus mud holes to some fertilizer company.

"Yazoo" says "hold your horses." It is a pleasure to stand on the shore and see the ships tossed upon the sea; a pleasure to stand in the window of a castle and see the battle and the adventures below; but no pleasure to sit idle and see these lovely days gliding swiftly away, without occasionally being in the midst of our friends and acquaintances.

The long arm of the store has reached to every recognized fashion center, and grasping the newest and best creations for the fashion-maker.

We've let oceans prove no barrier to our ambition for the supreme. We wanted the pretti-

These are queens among the Dress Goods from now on, and all honor to their reign. Regal, indeed are the qualities of the season. Never were light, gauzy materials so veil-like and wonderfully tinted.
